Public Members

- The Trust currently has 10,362 public members
- The Trust provides all members with a quarterly newsletter 'Safest and Kindest' either by email or post.

All Trust members are invited to a series of health lectures.
Forthcoming health lectures include:

- Sepsis – Dr Edwin Borman, 30th April 2018
- End of Life Care – Dr Roddy, Jules Lewis and Jules Lock, 15th May 2018
- Could it be cancer? – Dr Bruce Eden, 3rd September 2018

Volunteering

We currently have 902 volunteers within SaTH
We also have a further 100 Young Volunteers

We have recently transferred our volunteer management system to the Membership Engagement Service. Public involvement champions will also be able to be registered on this system.

We have recently re-branded our Trust volunteering 'brand'. This includes new uniforms, which are more visible to highlight their unique identity as volunteers

The White Garden – 5 July 2018

Work has started on the White Garden, which is due to open be officially open as part of our NHS70 celebrations

The White Garden

The development of the White Garden is supported by local businesses such as the British Ironwork Centre, who are supplying a white pergola.

A white butterfly has been created by the British Ironwork Centre for the garden.

These will also be available to purchase, with all proceeds going to the SaTH Charity.
